Winckelmann, a German Art Historian, claimed that beauty boiled down to three key factors. The beauty of form; The beauty of an idea; The beauty of expression, which, he says, is only possible in the presence of the first two factors. So then, beauty must be the highest form of expression and in turn, the highest aim of art.

JJ Charlesworth is an art critic and publisher at ArtReview magazine. Isobel Harbison argues that beauty, beyond skin deep, is always relevant. There is an irony to the editor's decision to invite a female art critic to advocate for beauty in art, and her male counterpart to dismiss the same quality.
